INTERNATIONAL LATIN AMERICA
IN BRIEF

Karla Azen

The Bronx Museum of the Arts will host "Cartographies: 14 Artists from Latin America," from 7 October through 15 January 1995. The exhibit, curated by Ivo Mesquita, includes works by Jose Bedia, Marta Maria, Perez Bravo, Julio Galan, and Guillermo Kuitca. Because the maps presented in the show are made from mixed media and of diverse geographical backgrounds, they serve as an argument against the all-inclusive title of "Latin American Art." In conjunction with the show, the symposium "Dislocations: Contemporary Art in Latin America" will further address issues concerning Latin American art as "Latin American Art," and will be held 8 October.
